

60 Cats
in 60 Days

The Woodford Humane Society takes in over 1000 animals every year, and more than half of them are cats. We have no time limit on any animal that comes through our doors; they can stay with us as long as it takes to find them their forever homes. With so many cats to see on any given day, it's easy for a few to fall through the cracks when adopters come to visit: maybe they're a little shy, maybe their coats aren't quite as flashy, maybe they're just still waiting for the perfect match to come along. Whatever the reason, some of our adoptable cats end up staying with us for a long time. These frisky, affectionate, adorable felines are happy and healthy here at the adoption center...but nothing is quite like having a real home.

Currently, there are 60 cats at the Woodford Humane Society who have been with us for 6 months or more; some of them have been with us for years. They range from 9 months to 9 years old and come in every personality type, shape, size, and color. Some are declawed. All of them are wonderful in their unique and lovely ways.

This summer, you can help us make their dreams come true by taking part in 60 Cats in 60 Days: our special promotion designed to put an end to their long wait and find every single one of them a home! Now through July 31st, we will be waiving our adoption fee for these 60 cats. If you've been looking for a feline friend or two to keep you company, take a look through these pages...you just might be the perfect match these cats have been waiting for so patiently.

Ava

Arrived on June 6, 2007

3 years old

When Ava arrived, she was an 8 week old kitten. She's lived with us her whole life, and while she's happy and healthy here, nothing beats the comfort and love of home. Ava is the definition of feline grace! Everything she does seems smooth, purposeful, and classy, as though she has stepped right out of a painting. Ava can be a little bit shy at first, but once you have her in your arms you'll be head over heels in love.

Lollipop

Arrived July 5, 2007

3 years old

Lollipop is a perfect combination of play and affection! There's almost nothing this girl won't do for a catnip mouse, but she's equally willing to jump through hoops (although less literally) for some good old TLC. Whether you're looking for a cuddle buddy to keep you company on a rainy day, or a ball of feline fun that's way better than TV, Lollipop has you covered.

Shelby

Arrived on November 5, 2007

3 years old

Shelby is one of those lucky cats who found her way to us all on her own...so much for black cats being unlucky! She wandered up on a chilly autumn morning and has been with us ever since, patiently waiting to go home. Shelby shows us just how happy she is to have love and care every day by rubbing up against us and purring her heart out; just imagine how happy she'll be when she finds her forever family.

Kizzie

Arrived April 21, 2008

5 years old

If you're lookin' for a whole lotta love, Kizzie is the girl for you! This gorgeous tortoiseshell lady is fun, fun, fun, and you won't find a sweeter personality anywhere. Sweet and silly is her style, and she can't wait to settle in on a friendly lap that she can call her own for the rest of her days! Could your lap use a little company?

Emu

Arrived on June 6, 2008
3 years old

We can't imagine why Emu is still waiting for a home; this beautiful girl is lovely inside and out, and she's got enough personality to last you a lifetime! Emu arrived in a litter of five, and all of her siblings have found their homes, but somehow Emu is still here. She's an affectionate girl who will roll all over the place to get to a favorite toy or a well-earned belly rub...if that's not heaven in cat form, we just don't know what is.

Greta

Arrived June 9, 2008
5 years old

Greta came to us as the proud mom of five beautiful kittens; all of her babies have found homes, and we think it's high time Greta got pampered a little herself! This beautiful lady is laid-back and affectionate, but she doesn't mind going after a toy now and then. Mostly, though, she just wants to find a best friend who she can purr away the days with for years to come.

Camden

Arrived on June 24, 2008

2 ½ years old

Camden is such a cutie, and his face is really distinct...we can always pick him out from all the other black cats, because he always looks a little quizzical and curious! He's a real sweetie, too: he's never too busy to just hang out and get a little loving from a favorite person. Camden has grown up here at the adoption center, and he's waited so patiently for his new best friend to walk through the door. If you think you can give him the home he truly deserves, there's no time like the present!

Louise

Arrived July 2, 2008

3 years old

Louise is a beautiful little lady whose personality is as radiant as the sunlight shining on her sleek coat! She's about as playful as a cat can get, and everybody is a playmate: other kitties, people, toys, stray bits of string and dust, the occasional cricket, her own shadow...the list goes on and on! If you're looking for a cat who will keep you laughing, Louise is definitely the one.

Janice

Arrived on July 3, 2008

2 ½ years old

Janice is an energetic girl with the perfect mixture of adventure and affection in her personality! She's extremely playful, and can't wait to have a home to call her own, full of soft spots to nap and plenty of toys (and maybe a feline playmate, too!), but mostly she just wants a new best friend to keep her company! There's something so special about a wily, mischievous cat, and we know you'll see it the moment you meet Janice.

Wednesday

Arrived September 8, 2008

3 years old

Wednesday is a beautiful girl with a heart of gold that shines right through her silky black fur. She's the perfect lazy-day companion: easy-going, laid-back, and always ready for a little petting and a lot of purring. Wednesday gets along great with other cats, and she's enjoyed her time in our colony rooms, but what she really wants is a cuddle buddy she can call her own, who will stick with her through thick and thin.

Cotton

Arrived on September 17, 2008

3 ½ years old

Cotton is one of those cats who love to talk! He doesn't yell, of course (he has manners, after all), he just loves to rumble in the back of his throat to say hi, or get your attention, or tell you how his day is going. Cotton is a real sweetie, always ready for a little petting, but he also knows how to do his own thing when you (or he!) need a little space. If "intelligent," "independent," and "affectionate" describe your ideal cat, Cotton is the man of your dreams.

Rosaline

Arrived November 3, 2008

4 ½ years old

Rosaline may have lost out to Juliet in Shakespeare's play, but her beauty was still the talk of the town! This lovely lady is beautiful inside and out, although she may be a little bit shy when she first meets you – before she came to us, Rosaline was used to fending for herself in a big and sometimes scary world. We think she deserves to be pampered a little after that, don't you?

Eira

Arrived on November 21, 2008

2 ½ years old

Eira's name comes from the Norse word for "mercy," and that's just what a nice lady showed her when she took her in off the street. When she was found, Eira was skinny and wearing a flea collar that was so tight it had to be cut off. Unfortunately, her new mom's senior cats weren't up to inviting a young whippersnapper into the family. But with a face and a personality like hers, we're sure she'll find a lucky person who will be up to the task! If you've been looking for a vivacious, loving lady to keep you company, it just might be you!

Aster

Arrived February 9, 2009

2 ½ years old

Aster is a classic cat: affectionate, smart, and playful! She's an adorable lady without a care in the world...except for wanting to find her perfect home, of course! It doesn't take much to make Aster happy; all she needs is a loving friend to grow up with, and a friendly lap to curl up in to purr away the nights. If you have a little extra room on your lap for a sweet cat in need, make Aster a part of your family today.

Lavender

Arrived on February 9, 2009

3 years old

Lavender is as lovely as the flower she's named for! She's got everything that defines a feline - grace, glamour, and affection, and of course a little bit of kitten-like playfulness mixed in, too. If you're hoping to add another cat to your current feline family, you're in luck: Lavender loves other cats and would fit right in with almost any group. This cat seems to know that beauty is more than skin-deep, and she shows us just how beautiful she is, inside and out, every single day!

Tallahassee

Arrived March 23, 2009

4 years old

Tallahassee is a little slice of Florida summertime, just for you! This adorable girl is perfect for lazy days and naps in the sunshine, but she's spunky and playful too - the perfect combination of everything you love about cats. Tallahassee can cuddle like an adult and play like a kitten, and all the while she'll chat you up! So start your summer vacation a little early this year: take Tallahassee home today!

Billie Holiday

Arrived on April 6, 2009

3 ½ years old

Billie is named after a famous singing sensation, but she's really a quiet, reserved cat with a big heart she can't wait to share. With her classic good looks and her laid-back personality, we can't believe this sweetie is still here! If you really want to make Billie's heart sing, all you have to do is give her what she really wants: a home to call her own.

Pocahontas

Arrived April 17, 2009

6 years old

Pocahontas may not know anything about her namesake, but she sure has all the poise and grace of a princess! This pretty lady's dark tabby stripes make her distinctive, but it's her sweet, reserved personality that makes her tug on your heartstrings. Pocahontas has spent some time as a stray, so you can't blame her if she's a little shy; after all, she probably hasn't seen the best side of people. What she really needs is a wonderful home where she can learn just how lovely the life of a lap-cat can be.

Burlap

Arrived on April 20, 2009

4 ½ years old

Burlap is a real sweetie! This sleek black gentleman is a little bit shy, but it's easy to understand why...he came to us trapped in a burlap sack! Despite his undignified arrival, Burlap has always been a sweet and well-mannered gent; he gets over his initial shyness quickly, and once he warms up to you that purr will never stop!

Comet

Arrived May 12, 2009

2 years old

Comet is here to light up your nights (and your days)! This sweet black cat is just as loving as can be, and she can't wait to meet her new best friend. She may not actually be a celestial body, but we think she deserves a place among the stars anyway. Comet came to us with five kittens who have all found their forever homes...but Comet is still patiently waiting. If you've been wishing on a lucky star for a loving feline friend to call your own, this gorgeous girl just might be your wish come true!

Kory

Arrived on May 18, 2009

3 ½ years old

Kory is a classic cat: energetic, curious, playful, and of course (occasionally) poised and graceful! The beautiful orange tabby coat is just icing on the cake. Kory is an easy-to-please, laid-back guy who's just looking for a little love and perhaps a catnip mouse or two. He's a little sweet and a little sassy, and he rules the roost in our colony rooms! Now all he needs is a roost he can really call his own.

Marta

Arrived May 23, 2009

3 years old

Best friends come in all colors, and so does Marta! This gorgeous tortoiseshell lady has a coat that shows off all the oranges, browns, creams, and reds that you can imagine, and better yet, it shows off a sweet and affectionate kitty! Marta loves to be loved, and would be perfectly content to settle into the lazy life of a lap-cat. If you've been looking for a big-hearted lady to keep you company, Marta just might be the one for you!

Marie O.

Arrived on June 6, 2009

1 year old

The "O" is for Osmond! This cutie may not be singing and dancing her way into show business, but she's still a star to us. Marie has been with us since she was just 6 weeks old, and we love her to pieces but we can't wait to see her go home. She's got the perfect mixture of sugar and spice and would make a wonderful companion for a family with kids or other cats! Whether she's sprawled out for a snooze or wrestling with her feline friends, this sweet girl is a real show-stopper!

Casey

Arrived June 29, 2009

3 years old

If you're looking for a fun-loving, big-hearted lady to light up your life, look no further: Casey is the girl for you! This affectionate brown tabby sweetie is laid-back and loving, and her favorite thing to do is make new friends, two-legged or four. She's a whole lot of fun, too: Casey sees everything as a toy, and she's guaranteed to chase, pounce, bat, and purr her way into your heart!

Saskia

Arrived on July 6, 2009

4-5 years old

Saskia has beauty past compare, and a loving personality, too! Her biggest dream is to have a home all of her own where she can snooze, play, nap, and lounge to her heart's content, all with plenty of cuddles, of course! Saskia is a chatty girl who would love to have a best friend to gossip with every day, so if you can lend a sweet lady your ear (and your heart), make her a part of your family today. You'll be taking home a cat who's a real gem, inside and out!

Joon

Arrived July 6, 2009

1 ½ years old

"Silly" is the perfect description for Joon! This vivacious, affectionate cat loves to play and purr more than anything in the world. She's a go-with-the-flow, sweetheart of a kitty who turns heads with both her sleek black coat and her sunny personality. Joon has never met a stranger, and loves the company of other cats; she'll make a wonderful addition to almost any lucky family from day one, and she'll keep you smiling every day after that.

Vermont

Arrived on July 13, 2009

1 year old

Vermont is such a sweetie, you'd never know that she was an untamed little thing when she came to the adoption center! Now she's a cuddly little girl, and cute as a button, too; it's amazing how much difference a little time with some kind-hearted people can make, and imagine how much her world will change when that special person walks in and falls in love with her! Vermont came to us in a litter of four, and she's the last of her siblings still waiting for a home. You can end that wait today!

Butch Cassidy

Arrived August 3, 2009

1 year old

You've got to watch out for this furry little outlaw, or he just might steal your heart! Butch was abandoned at WHS when he was just a kitten, so he has a special place in our hearts. We've watched him grow up into a spunky, energetic youngster who is such a joy: there's never a dull moment when Butch is around, and he's guaranteed to keep you laughing! If you're looking for a playful cat to keep you company, this handsome gent is definitely up to the task!

Grant

Arrived on August 3, 2009

2 years old

Grant is one of those cats that will stop whatever he's doing to say hello! Even when he's chowing down, this sweet boy isn't too distracted to give you a little purr of welcome; when he's not chowing down, he'll be reaching out to grab your attention...literally! Once he's got your attention, you'll see just how cute he is, from his white paws to his pink nose, and you'll never be able to give live without him! Grant gets along great with other cats and would love to have a playmate, so why not take home two?

Nessie

Arrived August 1, 2009

3 years old

Nessie has the prettiest green eyes that will capture your attention immediately, and the neatest personality that will make you fall in love with her for good! She's a pretty laid-back girl who just wants somebody to love, and as much as she's enjoying life here at the Adoption Center, she just can't wait to find the best friend who will stick with her through thick and thin. Nessie is a fantastic feline, and that special person will be lucky indeed!

Lilia

Arrived on August 6, 2009

1 year old

Lilia can be a little bit shy at first, but once you get this girl playing she's just like any other kitten! She loves other cats, and she's such a joy to watch while she plays with her feline friends here at the Adoption Center, but what this cute girl really needs is a loving family to show her just how great the life of a lazy lap-cat can be. Lilia is a sweetie through and through, and the lucky person who gives her her forever home will be making a wonderful friend for life!

Paisley

Arrived August 28, 2009

2 ½ years old

Paisley is a spunky little lady who can't wait to find her new best friend! This outgoing kitty will be the first to greet you at the door of her colony room, and she'll stick with you from then on. Paisley is an affectionate and playful girl who loves to be loved, so scoop her up and spend a little time cuddling with her...we know you'll never want to put her down, and she'll be perfectly content to cuddle up in your arms for good!

Argyle

Arrived on August 28, 2009

5 years old

Argyle is such a handsome gent; he's always calm and composed, and really seems to be full of the royal nature his lion ancestors possess. Under all that dignity, though, Argyle is just a big softie with a big heart he's longing to share! He might be a black cat, but there's nothing unlucky about this cat. He'll make you smile every time you see him for years to come, and keep you company through thick and thin!

Nicolai

Arrived August 31, 2009

1 ½ years old

If you love giving belly rubs, then Nicolai loves you! This cute little guy is as affectionate and playful as you would expect from a kitten, and he's already an expert at stealing hearts. Nicolai will run up and rub against you as soon as you walk in, and he'd love to stay right by your side for good. Fun-loving, sweet, and as smart as can be – that's Nicolai!

FiFi

Arrived on September 1, 2009

9 ½ years old

FiFi is a sassy older lady who knows exactly what she wants: a sunny window to sit in and a little love so get her by! She's independent and smart, and full of the cattitude we all know and love. FiFi is a big talker and would love to rub up against your ankles and chat away for hours. She may be a mature gal but her thirst for adventure is still young: FiFi would love to be an indoor/outdoor cat and explore your home AND your yard!

Thomas

Arrived September 3, 2009

5 years old

Some people are lucky enough to know from day one what they were born to do, and Thomas is one of them: he was born to be a lap-cat! This handsome boy is 100% love, and he'll do just about anything to get a little attention. Visit him in the colony room and he'll climb right up into your lap, purring away...what better way to catch your attention and your heart, after all! Get ready to have your pants charmed off, because Thomas can't wait to meet you!

Penguin

Arrived on September 6, 2009
2 years old

Looking for a lap-cat? Well look no further, because Penguin is your perfect match! This sweet, affectionate dude is perfectly content to just lie on a friendly lap all day long and watch the world go by. Rub his belly and you'll have an instant best friend for life; offer him a laser pointer to chase around and you'll have years of entertainment ahead of you! If you're looking for the perfect combination of sweet and silly, Penguin's all that and so much more in a very handsome package!

Player

Arrived September 21, 2009
5 years old

Player is such a classy lady! She's sweet to all of her feline and human friends, and when other cats are acting up she simply sits to the side and watches them with a wisdom beyond her years. If you're looking for a real lap-cat to keep you company, Player is the one for you! This brown tabby sweetheart is a low-key, laid-back girl who just wants a special person to cuddle up with. She's got plenty of love to share, and who couldn't use a few more purrs in their life? One thing's for sure: take Player home and your lap will never be lonely again!

Tessa

Arrived on October 5, 2009

2 ½ years old

There's just nothing ordinary about Tessa! This beautiful girl is a polydactyl cat - a special breed that has an extra toe on each foot - but no matter how cool it is that Tessa can give herself two thumbs up, it's really her personality that sets her apart from the rest! When you visit her in the colony room, Tessa will jump up onto your shoulders right away to make sure that you don't leave without her. The minute she rubs up against your face and purrs to her heart's content, she'll have you wrapped around her paw!

Tia

Arrived October 7, 2009

1 year old

Tia is independent, smart, and cute as a button...what more could you want in a feline friend?! This beautiful girl was a wild thing when she came to us as a kitten; she was always planning her next caper and she always kept us guessing! Tia has settled right in now, though, and you'd never know she was such a mischief maker as a kitten; she's affectionate and sweet, and gets along splendidly with all of her feline friends.

PJ

Arrived on October 15, 2009
2 years old

PJ may have a black coat, but his heart is pure gold! This sweet and handsome boy is such a lover, he just can't wait to rub up against you and make a new best friend! PJ is a pretty laid-back guy who seems to live for a little affection, so if you're looking for a lap-cat to keep you company, he might just be the one you've been waiting for. Don't ever let your lap be lonely again: introduce yourself to PJ today!

Marie

Arrived October 18, 2009
1 ½ years old

If you're looking for a real cutie who will keep you smiling, Marie just might be the one! She's an adorable and affectionate lady who can't wait to find a new buddy to play with. As much as she loves playing with her feline friends here at WHS, though, nothing compares with a real home. If you share your home with Marie, she'll be more than happy to reward you with years of love, laughs, and purrs...and if that's not heaven, we don't know what is.

Melody

Arrived on October 18, 2009

1 ½ years old

Looking for the perfect soundtrack for your life? Well, we've got a Melody that just might fit you perfectly! This sleek and slender girl is just about as sweet and playful as a cat can be, and she can't wait to meet her new best friend. Melody is inquisitive and smart, and when she's not playing she loves to just wind herself around your legs and purr. You won't find a more devoted feline friend than Melody!

Mr. Holland

Arrived October 31, 2009

9 months old

If you love a kitten with a silly personality and a big heart (and let's be honest, who doesn't?), Mr. Holland is the one for you! This sweetie has a huge purr that he's quick to share when someone shows him a little love, and he's playful as all get-out: when you meet him, he'll probably be chasing after some toy or wrestling with one of his siblings! Mr. Holland and his siblings arrived as tiny kittens, and they've grown up with us so far...don't make him wait any longer, take him home today!

Hennessy

Arrived on October 31, 2009
9 months old

If you think Hennessy's face looks a little quizzical in his photo, you're right...he's asking why the heck you haven't come and taken him home yet! Hennessy is about as cute as a kitten can get, from his big eyes to his sleek fur, and his personality is just to die for: he's always on the go, whether he's attacking a toy, wrestling with his brother and sister, or just chatting up a human visitor! Don't wait any longer, take Hennessy home today and watch this cutie grow up!

Sputnik

Arrived October 31, 2009
2 ½ years old

Sputnik is a sweetie of a cat with a silly personality that makes him the perfect accessory for any lap or any home! He's affectionate and friendly, always taking every opportunity to rub up against a leg or two with a purr of hello. This handsome guy has a mischievous streak a mile wide, too...just wait until you see him chasing after a toy! Sputnik knows exactly how to keep a smile on your face and a little extra joy in your heart.

Halena

Arrived on November 2, 2009
2 years old

Lovers of cattitude, beware: We have we got the cat for you! Halena is a sweet, loving girl who is as sassy and outspoken as they come, and she can't wait to be the leading lady in YOUR life! If there ever was a cat who defined being a cat, it's Halena - she's smart, spry, and silly all at once. We guarantee Halena will put a smile on your face every time you see her, so why miss out on all of those extra smiles? Take her home and feel the love every single day!

Woodrow

Arrived November 5, 2009
1 ½ years old

Woodrow is definitely one of our favorites...you'll never find a sweeter boy than this one! This lovable gent is the perfect mixture of adventure and cuddles; he's still practically a kitten, so he loves to pounce and play, but spend a little time with him and you'll find that he loves a little affection almost as much! Take Woodrow home and he'll keep you laughing, smiling, and loving life for many years to come.

Sarah

Arrived on November 25, 2009

1 ½ years old

Sarah is such a petite little lady, you'd almost think she was still a kitten! Her personality is a little too grown up for a baby, though; Sarah is a laid-back and affectionate lady who really seems to know that she's on her way to the loving family who will stick with her forever. She's perfectly content to settle in on a friendly lap and purr away the days, and she'll do everything she can to charm her way into your heart!

Snowflake

Arrived December 3, 2009

1 year old

Don't be fooled by Snowflake's name: this kitten is tons of fun all year round! Snowflake is a sweet little gentleman with an adventurous and loving personality that is sure to win your heart. He'll reach out and grab your attention (literally) as you walk by, but it's his wonderful personality that will keep you hooked! Snowflake loves spending time with his feline friends, but it's human companionship he's craving...so take him home today!

Mickey

Arrived on December 9, 2009

5-6 years old

Oh Mickey you're so fine, you're so fine you blow our minds! This adorable guy is so sweet it really DOES blow our minds; he's one of those cats who will roll all over the place just to get your attention and get a little lovin'! Mickey is training hard to be the best lap-cat he can be, so help him make sure all that hard work pays off: offer him your lap today and every day after!

Eliza

Arrived December 10, 2009

1 ½ years old

Eliza is a cute girl who can seem a little shy - she likes to burrow under blankets to hide - but she's always willing to come out for a little affection! Once you spend a few minutes getting to know her, she'll introduce you to a purr that is sure to melt your heart. Whether she's patrolling a barn or just curled up on a friendly lap, Eliza is a wonderful feline friend; she's waited so patiently to find her forever home...is today her (and your) lucky day?

Cinder

Arrived on December 11, 2009
2 years old

If you love a sassy little calico lady (and who doesn't?), you need to come meet Cinder! She's a gorgeous girl who can't wait to take on the world...or at least the catnip mice and sunbeams of a home she can call her own! Like any cat, Cinder has a laid-back side, too: take her home, and you'll see that she's equal parts feline mischief and purr-filled cuddles. Doesn't she sound like the best of both worlds?

Nugget

Arrived December 18, 2009
2 years old

Nugget is a sweet lady who's just a little bit shy...pick her up and show her a little affection, though, and you'll see just how lovely her personality really is! Nugget will cuddle up with you and purr the time away. She gets along great with everyone - cats, dogs, and kids - so she would make a wonderful addition to almost any family. Do you have room in your family for a big-hearted brown tabby lady?

Chuckles

Arrived on December 18, 2009
5 years old

Chuckles is a big ol' sweetheart who is guaranteed to keep you laughing! This big orange tabby cat is all love: his favorite thing in the world is to cuddle and purr! If you've been searching for a loving lap-cat to keep you company, Chuckles is perfectly qualified for the job. He gets along great with cats, dogs, and kids, so he's a great fit for any family!

Julep

Arrived December 28, 2009
2 years old

You won't find this Julep at the races, or sitting in a glass on a warm summer day, but her personality certainly is intoxicating! This sweet tabby lady is the perfect mixture of sugar and spice: she's playful and adventurous, but still has plenty of time to devote to cuddles and purrs! Whether you need entertaining, cheering up, or just a little company, Julep would love to be there to lend a paw.

Juniper

Arrived on December 28, 2009

1 year old

Juniper is an adventurous little lady who can't wait to have a bigger world to explore! This cute brown tabby girl has big eyes that will grab your attention, and a silly, playful personality that will hold it forever; if you've been searching for a cat with the perfect mixture of affection and play, Juniper just might be the one!

Jigsaw

Arrived December 28, 2009

2 ½ years old

Jigsaw is named for all the interlocking pieces that make up her beautiful fur coat - brown tabby, orange, and white all come together like puzzle pieces to make one gorgeous girl! Jigsaw can be a little shy at first, so take a minute to get to know her; we know once she opens up and starts to purr, she'll have your wrapped around her paw. Jigsaw is used to the working life of a barn cat, but she wouldn't mind giving a lazy lap-cat's life a try...could your lap use a little company?

Geronimo

Arrived on January 4, 2010
3 years old

Geronimo is one cool-looking cat! This handsome boy is mostly white, but he has the neatest little patches of orange on his forehead...and an orange tabby tail! Life isn't all about good looks, though, and Geronimo's personality is just as nice as his coat - he's an affectionate, laid-back cat who can't wait to settle right in as some lucky person's lazy lap-cat for good. Are you feeling lucky?

Kenya is a sweet and loving girl who's just looking for a sweet and loving family! This playful lady is a lot of fun to be around, whether she's chasing after a string, pouncing on a toy, or just cuddled up beside you for a purr and a snooze. She gets along great with other cats and can't wait to meet her new family, two-legged and four, so introduce yourself today!
