

60 Cats
in 60 Days

Shelby

Arrived on November 5, 2007

3 years old

Shelby is one of those lucky cats who found her way to us all on her own...so much for black cats being unlucky! She wandered up on a chilly autumn morning and has been with us ever since, patiently waiting to go home. Shelby shows us just how happy she is to have love and care every day by rubbing up against us and purring her heart out; just imagine how happy she'll be when she finds her forever family.

Wednesday

Arrived September 8, 2008

3 years old

Wednesday is a beautiful girl with a heart of gold that shines right through her silky black fur. She's the perfect lazy-day companion: easy-going, laid-back, and always ready for a little petting and a lot of purring. Wednesday gets along great with other cats, and she's enjoyed her time in our colony rooms, but what she really wants is a cuddle buddy she can call her own, who will stick with her through thick and thin.

Rosaline

Arrived November 3, 2008

4 ½ years old

Rosaline may have lost out to Juliet in Shakespeare's play, but her beauty was still the talk of the town! This lovely lady is beautiful inside and out, although she may be a little bit shy when she first meets you – before she came to us, Rosaline was used to fending for herself in a big and sometimes scary world. We think she deserves to be pampered a little after that, don't you?

Eira

Arrived on November 21, 2008

2 ½ years old

Eira's name comes from the Norse word for "mercy," and that's just what a nice lady showed her when she took her in off the street. When she was found, Eira was skinny and wearing a flea collar that was so tight it had to be cut off. Unfortunately, her new mom's senior cats weren't up to inviting a young whippersnapper into the family. But with a face and a personality like hers, we're sure she'll find a lucky person who will be up to the task! If you've been looking for a vivacious, loving lady to keep you company, it just might be you!

Lavender

Arrived on February 9, 2009

3 years old

Lavender is as lovely as the flower she's named for! She's got everything that defines a feline - grace, glamour, and affection, and of course a little bit of kitten-like playfulness mixed in, too. If you're hoping to add another cat to your current feline family, you're in luck: Lavender loves other cats and would fit right in with almost any group. This cat seems to know that beauty is more than skin-deep, and she shows us just how beautiful she is, inside and out, every single day!

Pocahontas

Arrived April 17, 2009

6 years old

Pocahontas may not know anything about her namesake, but she sure has all the poise and grace of a princess! This pretty lady's dark tabby stripes make her distinctive, but it's her sweet, reserved personality that makes her tug on your heartstrings. Pocahontas has spent some time as a stray, so you can't blame her if she's a little shy; after all, she probably hasn't seen the best side of people. What she really needs is a wonderful home where she can learn just how lovely the life of a lap-cat can be.

Comet

Arrived May 12, 2009

2 years old

Comet is here to light up your nights (and your days)! This sweet black cat is just as loving as can be, and she can't wait to meet her new best friend. She may not actually be a celestial body, but we think she deserves a place among the stars anyway. Comet came to us with five kittens who have all found their forever homes...but Comet is still patiently waiting. If you've been wishing on a lucky star for a loving feline friend to call your own, this gorgeous girl just might be your wish come true!

Marie O.

Arrived on June 6, 2009

1 year old

The "O" is for Osmond! This cutie may not be singing and dancing her way into show business, but she's still a star to us. Marie has been with us since she was just 6 weeks old, and we love her to pieces but we can't wait to see her go home. She's got the perfect mixture of sugar and spice and would make a wonderful companion for a family with kids or other cats! Whether she's sprawled out for a snooze or wrestling with her feline friends, this sweet girl is a real show-stopper!

Saskia

Arrived on July 6, 2009

4-5 years old

Saskia has beauty past compare, and a loving personality, too! Her biggest dream is to have a home all of her own where she can snooze, play, nap, and lounge to her heart's content, all with plenty of cuddles, of course! Saskia is a chatty girl who would love to have a best friend to gossip with every day, so if you can lend a sweet lady your ear (and your heart), make her a part of your family today. You'll be taking home a cat who's a real gem, inside and out!

Vermont

Arrived on July 13, 2009

1 year old

Vermont is such a sweetie, you'd never know that she was an untamed little thing when she came to the adoption center! Now she's a cuddly little girl, and cute as a button, too; it's amazing how much difference a little time with some kind-hearted people can make, and imagine how much her world will change when that special person walks in and falls in love with her! Vermont came to us in a litter of four, and she's the last of her siblings still waiting for a home. You can end that wait today!

Paisley

Arrived August 28, 2009

2 ½ years old

Paisley is a spunky little lady who can't wait to find her new best friend! This outgoing kitty will be the first to greet you at the door of her colony room, and she'll stick with you from then on. Paisley is an affectionate and playful girl who loves to be loved, so scoop her up and spend a little time cuddling with her...we know you'll never want to put her down, and she'll be perfectly content to cuddle up in your arms for good!

Nicolai

Arrived August 31, 2009

1 ½ years old

If you love giving belly rubs, then Nicolai loves you! This cute little guy is as affectionate and playful as you would expect from a kitten, and he's already an expert at stealing hearts. Nicolai will run up and rub against you as soon as you walk in, and he'd love to stay right by your side for good. Fun-loving, sweet, and as smart as can be – that's Nicolai!

FiFi

Arrived on September 1, 2009

9 ½ years old

FiFi is a sassy older lady who knows exactly what she wants: a sunny window to sit in and a little love so get her by! She's independent and smart, and full of the cattitude we all know and love. FiFi is a big talker and would love to rub up against your ankles and chat away for hours. She may be a mature gal but her thirst for adventure is still young: FiFi would love to be an indoor/outdoor cat and explore your home AND your yard!

Thomas

Arrived September 3, 2009

5 years old

Some people are lucky enough to know from day one what they were born to do, and Thomas is one of them: he was born to be a lap-cat! This handsome boy is 100% love, and he'll do just about anything to get a little attention. Visit him in the colony room and he'll climb right up into your lap, purring away...what better way to catch your attention and your heart, after all! Get ready to have your pants charmed off, because Thomas can't wait to meet you!

Tessa

Arrived on October 5, 2009
2 ½ years old

There's just nothing ordinary about Tessa! This beautiful girl is a polydactyl cat - a special breed that has an extra toe on each foot - but no matter how cool it is that Tessa can give herself two thumbs up, it's really her personality that sets her apart from the rest! When you visit her in the colony room, Tessa will jump up onto your shoulders right away to make sure that you don't leave without her. The minute she rubs up against your face and purrs to her heart's content, she'll have you wrapped around her paw!

Julep

Arrived December 28, 2009
2 years old

You won't find this Julep at the races, or sitting in a glass on a warm summer day, but her personality certainly is intoxicating! This sweet tabby lady is the perfect mixture of sugar and spice: she's playful and adventurous, but still has plenty of time to devote to cuddles and purrs! Whether you need entertaining, cheering up, or just a little company, Julep would love to be there to lend a paw.

Geronimo

Arrived on January 4, 2010

3 years old

Geronimo is one cool-looking cat! This handsome boy is mostly white, but he has the neatest little patches of orange on his forehead...and an orange tabby tail! Life isn't all about good looks, though, and Geronimo's personality is just as nice as his coat - he's an affectionate, laid-back cat who can't wait to settle right in as some lucky person's lazy lap-cat for good. Are you feeling lucky?

Kenya

Arrived January 12, 2010

2 ½ years old

Kenya is a sweet and loving girl who's just looking for a sweet and loving family! This playful lady is a lot of fun to be around, whether she's chasing after a string, pouncing on a toy, or just cuddled up beside you for a purr and a snooze. She gets along great with other cats and can't wait to meet her new family, two-legged and four, so introduce yourself today!
